Public Reaction Causes Change in Bylaw

A public outcry against a rezoning bylaw has resulted in the bylaw being amended. Town council, meeting in regular session last Monday unanimously carried Councillor Bob Russell's motion to delete area two from bylaw 5/71. In making his motion, Mr. Russell asked for the confidence of the people, saying he could not at present divulge further information on the negotiations that are taking place between the town and the new owners of Grandin Shoppers Park. Area 2 is the five-sided parcel of land located to the south-west of the shoppers park as indicated on the rezoning map.

Residents of the surrounding area had strongly protested council's action to rezone this land from P (public use) to Commercial. The protesters, who have retained legal representation, earlier presented a 24 page petition to council. Some 30 private letters of protest were also sent to town hall.

Addressing the standing room-only crowd during Monday's public hearing, Mayor Gibson said that if present negotiations are successful, "area 2 will remain parkland forever more."

To the suggestion that the bylaw not be proceeded with that evening and that council postpone the public hearing in order to give those residents concerned an opportunity to study the new proposal, the mayor pointed out that the owner of the shopping park was anxious to settle the rezoning of areas 1 and 3, and there was no reason to hold up these parcels since area 2, which was the bone of contention, would be removed from the bylaw in Mr. Russell's motion.

The mayor assured those present that, should negotiations fall, the town will again advertise the rezoning of area 2, and with this

In mind, will keep all submissions in case further action is required.

School project

The $3,500 Cross-Age Helpers program of the St. Albert Protestant Separate School District is one of the projects to receive financing through the $1 million innovative project fund of the education department.

The department will pay 50 per cent of projects that improve the efficiency and quality of education through the fund, announced last year.

The St. Albert program involves junior high and upper elementary students acting as teaching buddies to younger children.

The children's writing for children program is a direct result of the Cross-Age helpers.

In this program a number of grade six students wrote stories for grade one and two children. Illustrated by Paul Kane students, two of the books have to date been published by students of the Industrial Research and Training Centre. Four more books are in the making.

The books are presently in use in school libraries and may be made available to the public at a later date.

Lieutenant-Governor Dr. J. W. Grant MacEwan and head table guest Mrs. H. Stinson listen attentively to Douglas Webber, member of the 4th St. Albert Scouts. Dr. MacEwan was guest speaker at the recent Cub and Scout banquet.

Dr. MacEwan addresses Cubs and Scouts

Dr. J. W. Grant MacEwan, Lieutenant-governor of Alberta, was guest speaker at a family smorgasbord held by the 4th St. Albert Cubs and Scouts last week.

Dr. MacEwan, who spoke on the early history of Alberta, was made an honorary member of the troop by Cubmaster Brian Hewitt. In his talk, the Lieutenant-governor compared his scouting days to the present day program.

The headtable guests were escorted in by a six member Cub and Scout Color Party. Seated at the headtable with Dr. MacEwan were Dr. Olaf Simon, Calgary, president of the Alberta Karate Federation; District Commissioner Ted Langford; the Rev. L. Mus-to; Mrs. Marjorie Hill-MacDonald, first woman in North America to hold a Black Belt in karate; Dr. and Mrs. Willoughby and family and Mr. and Mrs. H. Stinson and family.

A karate demonstration by Dr. Simon and four of his students drew much interest. Dr. Simon explained to the audience that karate is considered an art requiring much mental skill and physical ability.

The toast to the Queen was offered by Scout Guy Willoughby and Scout Douglas Webber expressed thanks to the Lieutenant-Governor.

The 5th and 3rd St. Albert service teams were represented by Serge Dobko and Art Cunningham.

Howard Stinson, chairman of the 4th St. Albert Service team and MC for the evening made a presentation to assistant cubmaster Darryl Eschak. Mr. Eschak has joined the Canadian Armed Forces and will be leaving for the maritimes later this month.

Floral arrangements were by Grandin Flowers.

K of C gift aids local boy

Richard Schuchard of 40 Balmoral Drive, 24 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Schuchard is becoming more independent these days, thanks to a surgical bed he received from the St. Albert Council of the Knights of Columbus.

Five years ago Richard was seriously injured in a motorcycle accident which paralyzed the left side of his body. The injury relegated Richard to a wheelchair and dependency on others to move him around. The new bed enables Richard to adjust the height himself, making it possible for him to move out of his wheelchair and into bed by himself.

With special therapeutic attachments fitted to the bed, Richard will be able to exercise his muscles daily, and find the road to total recovery much sooner.

Skate-a-thon program looks great for Sunday

The annual Kinsmen Skate-a-thon in support of the arena will officially open at 10 o'clock Sunday morning in the Arena, Lt.-Gov. J. Grant MacEwan who last year raised $300 in the first Kinsmen Skate-a-thon

St. Albert M.L.A., Keith Everitt, has again been assisting the Lt.-Gov. in signing sponsors to his skate-a-thon pledge card. Mr. Everitt is signing up as many members of the Alberta Legislature as he can.

Mayor Gibson, who also raised $360 in the first Kinsmen Skate-a-thon held last year on the Sturgeon River, will skate again Sunday at noon in a challenge against "Chicken Man," the famous white-winged warrior who is recognized as the most fan-

Liberals Elect Russell

Robert Russell became the new leader of the Alberta Liberal Party at a convention held at the Hotel MacDonald last Saturday.

The 324 voting delegates chose their fifth leader in seven years on the first ballot. Winning by a better than two-to-one margin, this was Mr. Russell's third try at the post since 1966.

The 40 year old St. Albert town councillor, who was nominated by Doug Ross of St. Albert, said local Liberals were well represented at the convention with a full slate of 20 voting delegates present. These included four young Liberals, Brenda Gibson, Bob Woodcock, Kathy Byrne and Dorothy Humbert.

Included in Mr. Russell's immediate plans is a tour of the province to meet with all constituency presidents.

The new Liberal Leader said he expects Premier Strom to "adjourn the Session before the business is completed and call an election."

Mr. Russell has already been nominated to contest his home riding of St. Albert in the next provincial election.

Rod Woodcock, 24 year old U of A student from St. Albert, gained 51 votes in the leadership race.

School Superintendent discusses program

Mr. E. S. Gish, delivering his first annual report since his appointment as superintendent, St. Albert Separate School District, briefly touched on the new regulations which have come into effect with the passing of the new School Act. More responsibility for educational decision making has been shifted from the provincial to the local level. "For example," Mr. Gish said, "boards have been given more freedom in modifying the school year, in text book selection and in changing curriculum."

"On the other hand new regulations governing school finance severely restrict the boards in the amounts of revenue they can obtain through supplementary requisitions without recourse to plebiscite."

As a result, the board of trustees of this district will have to establish basic priorities and effect economies accordingly if school revenue is restricted to the amount provided through the foundation grant and the all-owed supplementary requisition, Mr. Gish said. Commenting on the program, Mr. Gish said courses and methods are changing rapidly.

SOCIAL STUDIES

A new social studies program is being introduced throughout Alberta and the change has created problems in St. Albert as in other systems.

The new program demands a considerable body of varied reference materials, Mr. Gish said, and most schools, including those in the district, have not yet acquired sufficient informational resources to adequately support it.

Teachers of social studies are modifying their approaches and have become well acquainted with the objectives of the new program and its necessary instructional methods through in-service training sessions, such as the teacher institute held at Simpson Junior high last November.

SCIENCE

Science instruction has also been undergoing a major change during the past several years, Mr. Gish said. Teachers are adopting methods which emphasize discovery and inquiry rather than the theoretical approach.

The upgrading of equipment, including the provision of portable labs, has improved the scope of science in the lower grades, but Mr. Gish sees a need for a greater variety of resource materials particularly in the junior high science options.

Modern mathematics instruction is generally effective, Mr. Gish feels, but added that a number of students have great difficulty in grasping the concepts and language of the course.

An evaluation will be conducted to determine what new programs and learning materials are needed for such children.

Increasing emphasis is now being placed in elementary grades on the integration of reading, writing, speaking and listening through language-arts.

Teachers at all levels are stressing the communicative function of the English language more than the grammatical aspect.

French is offered to students from grades 4 - 12.

Steps have been taken to implement, through the co-operation of local businessmen, a work experience program for business education students during the month of June.

Business education is the only vocational program offered in the district's high school.

Big dance opens Villeneuve Hall

The new community hall at Villeneuve was packed to capacity for the first big dance held in the building last Friday night, as people in the village and district turned out in full force to enjoy the fruits of their labors.

And young and old, enjoy themselves they did, to the lively beat of Brian Klak's four-piece orchestra, which kept the floor crowded throughout the evening.

Mr. Donald Victor, president of the Villeneuve Athletic Association spoke briefly, pointing out that the hall would serve the entire community, and in particular the children and youth groups. It is not a parish hall, he noted. Mr.

Victor paid tribute to those people in the community who had worked "twice as many days and hours" as required. "Any kind of a donation is welcome to help finish the hall, he said, "your hours or your money can be put to good use."

During the evening the orchestra, Brian, Gerald Soestert, Garry Bodex and Gordon Soestert, were joined by three local singers, Paul Majeau, George Soestert and George Klak, who added greatly to the entertainment. One medley by orchestra and singers included a swinging version of an almost forgotten favorite of the dirty thirties, "it ain't going to rain no more."

Phys. Ed instructor Fred Resler and Daralyn Moser taking part in the water boiling-tea making competitions at Paul Kane's first annual Spring Fever Frolic, held March 12.

the past year is the emphasis placed on student involvement at all levels of education, Mr. Gish said. Of particular interest in this area are the high school student tutorial program and the cross-age helpers project.

The former involves volunteer high school students who offer tutorial services in the language-arts and in math to elementary school children.

The latter includes the services of junior high and upper elementary students as "teaching buddies" in primary reading programs.

SPECIAL SERVICES

The district continues in its efforts to provide educational opportunities for all children.

Remedial programs are offered and, in co-operation with the public school district, two opportunity rooms are available for the less able student.

Provision is made for those students who require special programs to attend such schools as Winnifred Stewart, Evelyn Unger, Robin Hood, L. Y. Cairns and W. P. Wagner.

Before everybody went home, tired, but happy, the ladies, who had already served snacks for several hours, came up with steaming pots of coffee and stacks of country-style sandwiches and homemade cake.

Mayor's action 'most disturbing'

Separate School Trustee Bill Penrose, who said he was speaking as an individual, told the annual meeting of the St. Albert Separate School district a precedent has been set which he finds most disturbing.

Mr. Penrose said in the 12 years he has been in contact with the district he cannot remember ever seeing a delegation appear before the board to voice their concern about the financial operation of the district.

"Now an individual has expressed his concern about our financial operation to the minister concerned," he said, adding that this person "showed some ignorance of our operation."

Mr. Penrose, who did not name the person in question, said the individual concerned is an "officer of another jurisdiction in this town."

PSS COMMITTEE

Seven applications had been received from persons wishing to serve on the Preventive Social Services Committee. Appointed to serve on the committee were G. W. Fyfe, R. R. Bailey; Mrs. June A. Leggett; Rev. L. J. Musto; Mrs. Helen M. Alberts; Mrs. Sara J. Nelson and Mrs. Barbara Munro.

PARKS AND RECREATION BOARD

The parks and recreation board came under fire again at Monday's council meeting, as several councillors indicated their displeasure with the present board and the way it is operating. Councillor de Bruijn, who said the board is "education oriented," sees a need to change the board.

"They are more concerned with having lands placed adjacent to schools than with any other factor," he said. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17, 1971.

It disturbs us, Mr. Penrose said, that this person did not bring his concerns to us, and, noting that the citizen concerned was in the audience, trustee Penrose asked that if he had further questions he make a presentation to the board.

Mayor Ray Gibbon then stood on a point of order and proceeded to quote from a resolution passed by the AUMA, of which he is an executive member. As such, the mayor said his writing to the minister of education was quite proper.

Chairman Alvin Morris ruled there would be no further debate on this matter and said he could not allow the mayor to continue.

This is a meeting of the supporters of this school district, Mr. Morris said, and the business of the Alberta Urban Municipalities Association cannot properly be discussed here.

Mayor Gibbon said he had all correspondence and other materials pertaining to this question available to anyone interested in it and would be happy to discuss the matter after the meeting adjourned.

tastic crime-fighter the world has ever known.

Several hundred St. Albert youngsters are canvassing residents of the town and district with their skate-a-thon pledge cards, seeking sponsors to support the fund raising campaign.

Skaters are scheduled in age groups. They will be attempting to skate a maximum of 100 laps around the arena within a two-hour time limit.

Proceeds from the skate-a-thon will help the St. Albert Kinsmen complete their $45,000 financial commitment to the new St. Albert and District Arena. A large part of the Kinsmen commitment to the arena was the purchase of the rink's artificial ice plant.

Fred Calkins, chairman of the Kinsmen minor hockey committee, has challenged each of the town's minor hockey team coaches in Sunday's skate-a-thon.

Local School Principal seeks A.T.A. office

Mr. Rod Thronson of St. Albert Protestant School District and principal of Sir Alexander Mackenzie School is seeking office as Edmonton District Representative on the Provincial Executive Council of the Alberta Teachers Association.

The Edmonton district embraces some 2,400 teachers from 10 school divisions: Yellowhead, Parkland, Barrhead, Westlock, MD Sturgeon, County Strathcona, Leduc, Wetaskiwin city, County of Wetaskiwin and St. Albert. There are 13 district representatives on the council, three from Edmonton, two from Calgary and eight representing the rest of the province.

Balloting is done by mail and ballots will be going out next week to all ATA members in the district. They will be counted on April 10, just before the annual representative assembly, who meet once each year to set policies. It then becomes the responsibility of the district representatives to see that these policies are carried out by the executive office of the ATA. District reps. must also effect a two-way communication between the teachers in the field and the executive office, to give continuous representation.

"I am a candidate for this office because I feel strongly that more leadership is needed on the ATA executive, in the area of putting forward the views of the teaching body," said Mr. Thronson Monday.

Mr. Thronson also believes that since teaching is a profession, and rightly so, teachers must be accountable for their actions as professionals. "Teachers must have a larger voice in university programs for educating people to teach; and I am convinced it is vital that teachers become involved in an effective selection and screening program for people entering the profession," Mr. Thronson said.

Rod Thronson, who is one of four candidates running, has an impressive background of experience. In both ATA work and leadership training.

He holds a Bachelor of Education degree and a diploma in educational administration from the U of A, and has 18 years teaching experience, 11 of them as principal. For all of that time he has been active in the ATA serving in many executive capacities, and in particular in economic welfare work.

Rod has also been active in community work and has served as an executive member of the Lions Club, Chamber of Commerce, Elks Lodge, Toastmasters, Kinsmen and CNIB. Interested in young people, he has worked as cubmaster, basketball coach and church youth advisor.

He has been a very busy fellow in recent weeks, having visited all 11 ATA locals in Edmonton district, to speak to the members.

Legion Corner

Fred Austin portrayed the typical publican as he emceed a most enjoyable Pig and Whistle night at the Legion last Friday to the enjoyment of a capacity house of members and guests.

He introduced Jim Todd, a popular vocalist from Montgomery Branch in neighboring Edmonton. Rene Gardner produced some renditions of well known English melodies and also led in the sing-song. Flo Miller accompanied on the piano.

An unexpected appearance of a typical charlatry dressed in all her Sunday finery brought the house down with laughter. Shirley Brook portrayed that character in a skit with MC Fred.

Door prizes were won by Jean Ferguson and an unknown visitor — and a special prize was won by Eileen Gibson.

People went away asking when is the next one; so... sometime in April watch for another P & W.

St. Patrick's is just around the corner and this is as good an excuse as any for putting on the green... and get to spend it too. The Legion will honor this patron saint on Saturday the 20th, three days late, but more convenient to those who work. On the menu is music by the Moonlighters and — what else — Irish Stew. Legionnaires should not forget the cash bingo at the Community Hall on Friday the 19th of March. It has been well advertised about town as well as in these pages and a good turnout is anticipated.

March 27 will see the return of the popular western group Yesterday and Tomorrow.

The social convener urges all men as well as women to get their "hats" done up for the Mad Hatters party early in April.

Speaking of April, you Legionnaires who have been tardy in picking up your 1971 memberships must procure these paid-up new 1971 cards in March or you won't get in. Imagine the embarrassment of having to be "signed-in" as a "guest."

Each million people we add to our population requires an additional 172,000 beef cattle at today's food consumption rates.

How to get a tax deduction without getting married.

If you think the only ways to get a tax deduction is to take a bride or have some kids or stack up medical receipts, you should find out about section 79B. Ever hear of it?

It's that part of the Income Tax Act that permits you to deduct up to $500 from your annual earned taxable income for the purchase of a Registered Retirement Savings Plan.

At Metropolitan Life, we have many plans, in both annuities and permanent life insurance that are eligible for registration. These plans let tax-deductible dollars help you build a retirement income.

Goings on at Paul Kane

By Holly Hill

Paul Kane's first annual Spring Fever Frolic, held last Friday was a great success, enjoyed by participant and spectator alike. Friday afternoon was free for students and teachers to compete in a number of events. The first event of the afternoon was the King and Queen competition.

The 10 couples who vied for the title, competed in a variety of skill testing activities. The first was a three-legged race, but just to make things interesting the couples wore snowshoes. After this the couples relaxed with a cup of tea, but not before they built and started the fire, and melted snow for water.

Then in true "push me-pull you" fashion they saved logs with a buck saw.

Russ Delorme and Holly Hill were crowned king and queen. They had a tie for first place in fire building with Mr. Roeler and Daralyn Moser, a second in the three-legged snowshoe race and third in log-sawing.

The next event was the boy's 440 yard snowshoe race. Russ Delorme took first. In the girls 110 yard snowshoe race Carol Armstrong was first. Then in the toboggan race the teacher's team, consisting of Mr. Darroch, Mr. Manyuk and Mrs. Kupsch, came first.

In the log sawing the winning boys team was Russ Delorme and Dino McLaughlin, the winning girls team was Debbie Wahl and Laurie Wright.

The teachers came up with two more wins when Mr. Darroch took the boys nail pounding and Mrs. Kupsch took the girls nail-pounding.

In the tug-o-war the girls beat out the boys. The teachers beat out the students, even though the teacher's numbers were limited but not the students. It was somewhat unfair but definitely hilarious.

One of the last events was the judging of the snow sculptures. All week long aspiring (perspiring) young sculptors were busy creating their masterpieces of ice and snow. Although many of the students didn't know what they were creating until it was finished, a lot of time and school spirit went into the weird collection of creatures.

The Phys. Ed 30 classes

"Paul Kane" sculpture took first place.

The muk-luks were won by Debbie Rutledge.

A sock hop in the gymnasium rounded off the afternoons activities.

CURLING

Last week the final draw of the curling season was held at the St. Albert rink. Terry Mitchell and his rink of Janice Hoosier, John Dolman and Virginia Brown emerged on top of the standings. Doug Barker's rink came in a close second and Norman Hill was third.

This weekend Paul Kane curlers were very successful wherever they went. On Saturday in the Archbishop Jordan bonspiel, Lane Bryant and his rink of Norman Hill, Janice Hoosier and Laurie Hart took second place in the "C" event. On Sunday in the Redwater High School bonspiel, the same rink took fourth place in the "A" event. At this same bonspiel Ken Kuhn and rink mates Karen Anderson, Dave Upright, and Brian Harvie placed third in the "B" event.

This weekend finished off the season very well, with everyone entered from PK coming home with a prize or two.

Citizenship awards at Nickerson

Deserving students who have shown commendable qualities were presented with Citizenship Awards at Leo Nickerson School last week. Those receiving the awards were: Charles Andrews, Travis Parayko, Jeffrey Saunders, Robert Belsher, Brenda Nielsen, Mary Jane Wiersema, all attending grade six at the school.

Grade five students being presented with the certificates were: Robert Lamb, Kenneth Siemens, Grace Niemeyer, Janice Cockwill, Charlotte Wiersema, Lori Mitchell, Rebecca Andrews, Katharina de Heek, Ada Schram, Lenore Willis.

The following grade four students also received the awards: Kevin Beauchamp, Kim Jacobs, Marlon Bergen, Shelley Coulon, Michael Parkin, William Glass, Barbara Folkins, Timothy Fors, Susan Droege, Earl McKenzie, Beth Heusermann, Brent Belsher, Deborah Simpson, Bradley Dufnall, and Rodney Kane.

GHOSTS

Mrs. G. T. Hervey, 1045 Wenleigh Court, Mississauga, Ont., is collecting reports, true and false, of people who have supposedly seen ghosts or similar apparitions in Canada during the 1960's.

She would love to hear from ghost-watchers in St. Albert and District and invites people to write to her at the above mentioned address.

Russel Delorme and Holly Hill were crowned King and Queen at Paul Kane's first annual Spring Fever Frolic, held March 12.

Board chairman reviews past year

The annual report of the trustees, St. Albert Protestant Separate School District was presented by Board Chairman Charles E. Schroder at a meeting held March 10.

From January 1970 until the October election the trustees were: C. E. Schroder, Dr. W. D. Cuts, R. H. Harvey, W. A. Penrose and J. A. Wiltshire.

In the October election Mr. Penrose was re-elected for another year and E. A. Davis was elected to replace Mr. Harvey who had resigned from the board.

All trustees are up for election in the fall of 1971.

Mr. Schroder said the board keeps in close touch with the students. To this end, regular meetings are held with the student advisory committee.

Made up of 16 students from Paul Kane, SAM and Simpson schools, through this committee the board is able to discuss problems of direct concern to the students.

The nine classroom, (plus ancillary room) addition to SAM school was completed and occupied by Sept. 1 of last year.

Agreement to purchase five acres of land (contiguous to parkland in the Lacombe Park area) was reached. Construction of an elementary school will commence as soon as student population in that area will support it, Mr. Schroder said.

The joint-use agreement has been working very smoothly, during the past year, Mr. Schroder said.

He added some 64 organizations are using the schools' gymnasiums and other rooms during the year.

The board has worked closely with the town council, especially in placement of parkland contiguous with school sites.

Regular meetings continue with St. Albert public school district.

NAMAO WINS STURGEON VALLEY HOCKEY LEAGUE

Scoring champion Bob Crozier scored two third period goals to lead Namao to an 8 - 4 win over Calahoo last Sunday in Legal as they captured the best of five series three games to one. The win gave Namao the Sturgeon Valley Senior B League championship and the Morinville McLeod's Store trophy. Bon Accord was last year's winner.

Calahoo entered the game down 2 - 1 in games and needing a win to stay alive. With the game just 25 seconds old Claude Contant scored with his brother Mark, assisting, to give Calahoo a 1 - 0 lead. Calahoo went ahead 3 - 0 at the midway mark of the first as Emil Berube scored two goals in less than one minute. At this point Calahoo was controlling the play and appeared to be back in the series.

Namao finally got on the scoreboard at the 12:03 mark with Dale Hegadorn tipping in a pass from Bill Akerman. The play was getting a little rough and it finally erupted into a full scale brawl at the 17:01 mark, resulting in Emil Berube, Phil Dutton and goaltender Gerald McGinn from Calahoo being ejected with fighting penalties and a game misconduct each.

Adolf Yeske and Bob Samis of Namao received the same penalties and at this point the referees ordered both teams into their dressing rooms to cool off for awhile.

When the teams came out to resume play of the remainder of the first period, Calahoo coach Blackie Quintal had Mark Contant in goal (first time in six years) and only 10 players including the goalie. They also started the period with two players in the penalty box with Namao having one sitting it out. At the 18:50 mark of the first, Les Dutton put Calahoo ahead 4 - 1 as he intercepted an errant Namao pass and was in home free to score. Contant was not to be beaten in the dying moments of the first as Namao had some excellent chances and the first period finally ended 4 - 1 in favor of Calahoo.

At the 5:30 mark of the second period Tom Crozier scored the first of his three goals with Hegadorn picking up the assist to put Namao to within two goals. Namao appeared to start to take control of the game although they could not beat Contant until just before the end of the second when Bill Akerman scored for Namao on a rebound set up by Lee and Bob Crozier. The goal was scored while Cliff Fowler was sitting out a kneeling penalty for Calahoo and the score at the end of the second was 4 - 3 for Calahoo.

Namao completely dominated the third period as they scored five unanswered goals. Hegadorn with his second goal of the night tied the game 4 - 4 with just 1:25 gone in the third and eight minutes later Max Yeske put Namao ahead to stay with the winning goal. This was an unassisted marker as he picked up a bad Calahoo clearing pass and slipped it behind Contant. Another battle broke out on the ice as well as in the stands and Cliff Fowler of Calahoo was ejected as was Bob Crozier of Namao.

The combination of Tom Crozier, Bill Akerman and Dale Hegadorn went to work for Namao resulting in Crozier scoring two goals, Akerman one and Hegadorn assisting on all three.

Calahoo received 18 of the 29 penalties and this along with the five players ejected from the game, no doubt cost them the chance to even up the series. After the way Calahoo took command of the first period, Namao coach Clay Crozier felt that a fifth and deciding game was in the making. He was however, fortunate enough to have a few more players on the bench and his club played like champions and won the game 8 - 4.

Legal, winners of the B series have issued a challenge to Namao, but it was not accepted as league rules did not allow for the match.

Permafrost covers about 24 per cent of the world's land area, or about 12.5 million square miles.

"Are they really in love?"

"They must be. She listens to him describing a basketball game and he listens to her telling how her cousin's new dress is made."

"I'm very sorry," said the personnel manager, "but if I list you take two hours off for lunch today, I'd have to do the same thing for every employee whose wife gave birth to quadruplets."

Protest Game May Go Thursday

As a result of last Sunday's game between Namao and Calahoo for the league championship a protest was made by the Calahoo club to have the game replayed. The Calahoo club did not agree with the referees decision and a meeting was held late Tuesday night to determine what steps to take.

Of the teams that attended (four out of nine) it was decided to replay the game this Thursday in Legal.

Although Namao coach Clay Crozier did not attend the meeting he was contacted by phone by the Gazette and advised he would not take his team to Legal for the game and as far as he was concerned Namao were the champions.

Reports from the Legislature

by Hugh Horner (PC)

by Keith Everitt (SC)

There have been a number of programs and ideas advanced in the Legislature in the past two weeks which are of some concern to our rural areas. The first of this is the intention of the provincial government to bring in an Industrial Incentives Act which is going to make available a fund of ten million dollars with three million dollars to be spent the first year in loans to industry to establish outside of cities of under 40,000 people. While we don't disagree with this Act at all we think that there should be more so that the government can act with dispatch in dealing with applications under this new Act.

Another positive policy that has been announced is the availability of loans to the tourist industry for the construction of facilities through the Alberta Commercial Corporation. This has been done by a change in Order in Council that they're going to make a fair amount of money, up to five million dollars, available to the tourist industry for capital expenditure in their facilities.

While these two programs are certainly of benefit to the rural areas the reduction in grants to municipalities and towns is going to hit us very hard indeed. Instead of getting one third of the royalty income that the provincial government receives from the sale of petroleum and natural gas the government has decided to set a limit on this of 38 million dollars. While this 38 million dollars is slightly above what was paid out last year, it is far short of the anticipated one third which would be more in the neighborhood of 50 million dollars. This means that every community, every taxpayer in Alberta is going to have to pay a little bit more on property taxes because the municipalities won't have that additional revenue.

The other piece of legislation which really concerns rural Alberta is that the proposed changes in the assessment and taxation of pipe lines and power lines apparently the government intends to assess these and have the money go into a fund and then be redistributed to all the municipalities in Alberta. It's pretty obvious that most of this assessment is in the rural areas and now the cities will share in this taxation. We don't believe this should be so and would rather see it left alone if this is the only change they can make.

Two additional bills have been given second reading. The first one to set up a hospital commission. We voted against this Bill because we think that it just puts an additional buffer and bureaucracy between the people and the government, without doing very much about the hospital costs. The serious problem here is that the hospitals throughout Alberta have now been restricted in the amount of money they are going to receive from the provincial government and any extra costs or deficits will have to be picked up again by the property owner through property taxation.

The second Bill that has been given second reading is the one to amalgamate the department of health and social development. We opposed this Bill as well on the grounds that it really wouldn't help the people at the bottom but would rather increase the bureaucracy.

In fact, what's going to happen, is instead of having two deputy ministers, we're going to have four, and each of these of course just adds tremendously to the number of people who are working at the top. The government says it needs this amalgamation so that it can coordinate programs at the

By Ralph Jespersen MLA for Keith Everitt MLA

The Members of the Legislative Assembly were deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Mr. Wm. Everitt, father of Mr. Keith Everitt, MLA for St. Albert. Sympathy is extended to the Everitt family at this time of bereavement.

The establishing of a Provincial Park in the vicinity of the Sturgeon River and Big Lake area was strongly advocated by Mr. Everitt, as he spoke Thursday evening during the Budget Debate.

Mr. Everitt expressed concerns regarding assessments and outlined the apparent inequities which presently exist. Charts were used by the Member to show the variations in taxes being paid in Sturgeon municipality.

The problems of all risk crop insurance were also outlined. Mr. Everitt referred to a number of areas where farmers in the St. Albert constituency have requested changes in the present crop insurance plan.

Mr. Everitt will give a more detailed account of the proceedings of the Session in his column next week.

Sturgeon changes school starting age

Sturgeon School Division has changed its policy concerning the age at which children may commence school. The new policy, which was adopted at the board's regular meeting last week, reads as follows:

"A child who will be six years of age on or before the last day of February may be admitted to school at the beginning of the fall term. No child whose sixth birthday falls between March 1st and the day prior to the beginning of the fall term, inclusive, may be admitted prior to the opening of the ensuing fall term. No admission of beginners to the Grade one program will be made at other than the above times."

Up to this time the school starting age in Divisional schools has been six years prior to December 31 of the year in which the child starts school.

The new policy which in effect lowers the school starting age by two months will mean an increase in the number of children commencing school in the fall term.

It is expected that about 235 students will be registered in grade one classes in Divisional schools in the fall as compared to about 200 students under the old policy.

Lady Doctor joins clinic

VIDA MAQUBELA, MD

Dark eyes twinkling, Dr. Vida Maqubela replied simply "I have always wanted to be a doctor," when we asked her what made her choose this particular profession.

A native of Malawi, Africa, Dr. Maqubela received her degree in medicine from the University of Bristol, England.

She has practised in Rhodesia and most recently in Zambia where she was a government medical officer, working in a hospital outpatient clinic.

Dr. Maqubela came to Edmonton at the end of August of last year. Her husband is a post-graduate student at the U of A, working towards his PhD in history.

The mother of two young daughters, she makes her home in Michener Park and joined the Cousteau Clinic in Grandin Shoppers Park earlier this year.

Dr. Maqubela finds a distinct difference between the patients she sees here and those she treated in Africa.

"Most people here have some vague idea of what might be ailing them," she said. "They have heard about the different drugs that are available to them and are quite often familiar with medical procedures and terms."

"The African, not having been exposed to TV and literature to the extent the North American is, will take any medicine without question and would not suggest that the doctor prescribe a certain drug."

Medical services are provided free of charge in Zambia and are, generally speaking, made good use of.

The people from the outlying villages sometimes tend to wait too long before seeking medical attention. They will bring in a critically ill person and say, "We thought he might get better" when we ask why they waited so long, Dr. Maqubela said.

There is not nearly as much mental illness and other diseases related to high pressure living in Africa as we see here, Dr. Maqubela said.

She added that in her native country malnutrition and parasitic diseases are quite common.

The Maqubela family is enjoying their stay in this part of the world and would like to remain here for a while. Opportunities at home are limited in certain cases, the doctor said.

The community is happy to welcome Dr. Maqubela to St. Albert.

Around Town

The engagement has been announced of Susan Lorraine daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burrows, 1 Garden Crescent to Mr. Allan Nielsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nielsen, 50 Grandora Crescent.

Scouts and Cubs to blitz town

About 170 boys of Third and Fourth St. Albert Cubs and Scouts will be in evidence all over town on Saturday, as they conduct a one-day blitz Paper Drive. With the co-operation of their leaders, parents and the local residents, the young fellows hope to clean out every home of old newspapers, cartons, phone books, catalogues and other paper goods. The money they raise will be put to good use supporting their training programs and camps.

Yvonne Brostrom gets All Round Cord

Yvonne Brostrom, 14-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Eric Brostrom, 34 Geneva Crescent, has been presented with the All-Round Cord by the Girl Guides of Canada.

A grade nine student at George Simpson, Yvonne has been active in the movement for five years. She was a brownie for two years and then flew up to guides three years ago.

On Feb. 28 about 50 scouts participated in a fishing derby for Landing Trail scouts, organized by leaders John Swerink and Jim Kehoe. The boys left at 8 a.m. for scout camp at Lake Wabamun, intending to decimate the fish population. Fortunately for the fish they got involved in a sufficient number of other activities to prevent this happening.

Showschooling, snowmobiling and survival camp training were added to the ice fishing and the boys and their leaders had a whale of a time, returning, reluctantly, late in the evening.

To receive her All-Round Cord a guide must complete an extensive program and pass many tests. The first girl in the Grandin Park district to receive this honor, Yvonne has completed such courses as the six week home nursing program the AARN babysitting course and numerous others including crafts, pioneers and citizenship.

Morinville observes Education Week

By Rose Martel

An excellent parent participation and large attendance at all class project and displays marked Education Week in Morinville last week.

On Tuesday evening open house was held at Notre Dame and the Yellow school. Teachers welcomed the parents and explained new methods and subjects to the visitors.

Wednesday evening Georges P. Vanier school with junior and high school classes, welcomed over 300 interested adults, who were introduced to many new displays and programs, never dealt with in school before.

Among the many new displays were automobiles, power engineering, hairdressing, interior decorating, accounting, airline and passenger travel data. Agriculture, banking, and office work including computer programming.

In the regular class displays were two informative displays. The drug education display had representatives from the department of youth. In attendance who answered questions on the usage of drugs. Also a report was published on the local use of drugs by high school students in social science 10 class in Morinville. The students conducted a survey in the town recently.

The other display was on religion, with the theme, Jesus Christ Super Star. To fully appreciate this program one had to be present at the beginning of the presentation. Many adults were a little shocked by what they saw, but those who were present at the introduction before film was shown found it quite acceptable.

The 1971 career fair and education week program, in Morinville was generally considered the most informative ever held in the town.

The art class display was a riot of color and modern motifs, such as the Peace signs hanging from the ceiling. The variety was great and the adults enjoyed the art work done by Grade 8A at Vanier.

Accounting is the career chosen by Robert Houle, and he is shown here with some office machines on display during the Career Fair at Vanier.

Principal Marcel Schayes who teaches chemistry at Georges P. Vanier to grade XII, supervises as Robert Supermart, 17, proceeds with an experiment as Donna-Maria Martel, another senior high grade XII student and one of the hostesses for the evening looks on.

Bon Accord pioneer, Wm. Everitt passes

A large congregation attended the funeral service for Mr. William Everitt, held Monday at the McBride Funeral Home. The Reverend Howard Clifford officiated and interment followed in the Evergreen Memorial Gardens. Mr. Everitt, who was 75, died Friday, a victim of cancer. Born in Chatham, Ontario, Mr. Everitt was only a year old when his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Everitt brought their family to settle on a homestead in the Bon Accord district in 1896.

Farming was his life's work and he was actively engaged in it until six years ago. After his retirement he continued to spend many hours at his well loved hobby of gardening and raising flowers.

Fifty-four years ago this month, he married Kathleen Doris Smith, a teacher who had come from England and taught in the district. Two years later the couple bought a farm northwest of Bon Accord, where they broke new land, and began carving out the farm site that was to be their permanent home. The Everitts raised three children, Kenneth, now in Winnipeg, Kath of Bon Accord and Gwen, now Mrs. C. Cangiano of Hamilton. Among other community activities, Mr. Everitt served as a school trustee in his district.

Besides his widow at home and his family, Mr. Everitt is survived by a brother, John, of Edmonton, three sisters, Mrs. Carrie Groat and Mrs. Rose Jordan of Vancouver and Mrs. Gladys Martel of Picardville; 12 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Mr. Everitt was a well respected and kind neighbor to all who knew him, and the district extends a warm expression of sympathy to Mrs. Everitt and the family.

Small turnout at Annual School meeting

An audience of 50, about two-thirds of whom were teachers or persons otherwise directly concerned with the district, heard the financial statement and reports from the superintendent and board of trustees at the annual meeting of the St. Albert Separate School District, March 10.

The district shows a student enrolment of 2,390 as at Dec. 31, 1970.

Those parents present showed a keen interest in the district's operations and asked numerous questions of the trustees and administrators.

DRUGS

The illegal use of drugs continues to be a source of grave concern to many parents. Questioned on the seriousness of the problem, Mr. E. S. Gish, district superintendent replied the situation at present is less of a problem than in some areas.

The district has a drug policy which is quite similar to that set out by the two Edmonton school boards.

HIGH SCHOOL

Questioned on the district's proposed new high school, Board Chairman Charles Schroder said the architects feel a September 1972 completion date is possible.

Planned for a student population greater than 650 and possibly 1,000 the two-storey school will offer academic, general and business courses. There will not be a vocational program offered in the school.

A plan, which shows the school's location on Cunningham road, has not yet been approved.

FINANCES

In reply to a question from Mr. R. Gibbon on how deep the taxpayer will be asked to dig in his pocket to foot the school requisition this year, Mr. Schroder said it would be unwise to speak in dollars at this time. He pointed out that the board is still negotiating with the teachers.

Trustee Bill Penrose added any figures mentioned would be speculation at this time. "You're just crystal-balling."

CANADIAN MATERIALS

A parent in the audience said he had inspected the book shelves in the area where the meeting was held and noted the absence of such Canadian magazines as Maclean's, adding that it would appear many of the books on display were not Canadian.

His motion "that the board purchase Canadian books and magazines for their school libraries wherever possible," was passed.

STAFF SEMINARS

Concern was expressed by a member of the audience over teachers suspending classes for periods during the year to upgrade their professional standards. "Can this not be done outside of school hours?", he asked.

Trustee Bill Penrose said that hopefully the districts future contracts with the teachers will allow for more flexibility in this area.

Trustee Jim Wiltshire explained that the new School Act stipulates there shall be 190 school days for students and up to 200 for teachers.

He said the board would like to see inservice-training done at the beginning of the school year, in other words, the students would come in at a later date than the teachers.

Superintendent E. S. Gish said the teacher institutes are not a waste of time. "We must have them when it is feasible to have them. They can't always be held on Saturdays." He added he would not like to see teacher workshops restricted to the first week of the school year.

Letters to the Editor

Hospital praised

The Editor:

Having recently been a patient in the Sturgeon Hospital in St. Albert, I would like to use the columns of your paper to express my appreciation of the very excellent treatment I received there.

I should say first that I know nothing of the organization or operation of a hospital, so my remarks will only be valid from the point of view of a patient. However, in my seventy odd years, I have had some experience from that angle. And I know that many people are fearful of going into hospital; I hope this letter may encourage them.

The first thing one notices on being admitted is the atmosphere of the place. Bright and shining and sterile a hospital must be, but this one also manages to be friendly and almost homelike.

It is not only the comfortable lounge with TV set on each floor, but the staff who looked after us so efficiently on the fourth floor were so very friendly and helpful.

From the orderly to the head nurse, they could not have been kinder.

I must mention here the food. Every meal was good, good food well cooked and tastefully served. For the first few days I wasn't able to enjoy it, but even then, I was able to taste the soup, and it was always excellent.

Another feature we all enjoyed that boosted our morale, was the serving of the evening meal by the candy-strippers. These young ladies with their smart uniforms, well groomed appearance and happy faces, were a real tonic every day; they obviously enjoyed the work and did it well. And it was a treat to see young girls who looked like girls, pretty and smart and happy looking. 'Joy In Service' could be their motto.

I should also like to commend the ladies of the hospital auxiliary for the library service that they make available to patients. A large selection of books is brought through the wards every Friday and one can pick any book he wishes. To one fond of reading this is a golden opportunity to kill time profitably and pleasantly.

I suspect this is just one of many ways in which these ladies make life more bearable for those confined to hospital.

To sum up, I am proud of our hospital, both as an expatriate and as a ratepayer. For it's very competent and friendly staff, its very fine equipment and comfortable furnishings, for the fine spirit of service and co-operation (that gets the best out of everyone, including patients). For its cheerful atmosphere and the marvellous view from its windows!

I would like to congratulate the people who worked hard to get it built, the board who manages it and the fine people who staff it. I am grateful to all of you. Thank you.

W. Geoff Bockoc.

Councillor replies

The Editor:

The Gazette was wrong in reporting in the March 3 issue that "Council is firm on bonding policy." On the contrary, council, by resolution, agreed to accept a bond far below the requirements of the present town policy.

As was reported, the present town policy is that developers should provide the town with a bond amounting to 50 per cent of the total development cost. The amount $150,000 that council agreed on does not constitute 50 per cent of the total development cost. In fact it is more like 30 per cent. And further it may be worth mentioning that Mr. Walker in a letter to the town on behalf of the developer was suggesting an amount of $199,500.

Further, from the same article in the Gazette, it could be implied that I approved of or that I preferred the previous policy. This is not so. The following brief review of the town's policies on performance bonds since the first development agreement with Alan should clarify my statements.

The first policy, (Policy #1) was that the developer provide the town with a performance bond equal to 100 per cent of the total development cost. Because some developers were experiencing difficulties in obtaining such a bond, council came forth with another policy (Policy #2). This policy which was instituted last summer, involved a third party, the contractors, and was so complex that it was difficult to access the pro-

Calahoo boys in wrestling Semi-finals

By Liz McLeod

Wrestling in the northern semi-finals at NAIT were several boys from Calahoo district who attended Camilla school.

Last year's champ Edmond Paquette won two out of three bouts in the 105 pound class. Edward Paquette in the 72 pound class won all his bouts as did his brother Omar in the 54 pound class.

Of the three Carty brothers Tom in 114 1/2 pound class goes on to the finals. Murray and Keith put on a fine showing as well.

Dale Labonte won in the 78 pound class. Dale Bodder won in the 48 pound class. Henry Kerckhof enters the finals on March 20 in the 66 pound class.

Jack Ireland wrestled in the heavy weight 193 pound and up class.

More than 60 wrestlers entered from Camilla and a good crowd watched the more than 500 that were in the semi finals.

Wrestlers from Hinton, Alberta, came to Camilla for the semi finals. The best of luck goes out to all the boys of the district at the finals on March 20.

Sturgeon announces beginners in June

Sturgeon School Division No. 24 has released dates for the holding of its orientation-readiness program for children commencing school at the beginning of the fall term.

The program, which permits children normally starting school in the fall to attend school for a two-week period in June, will run from June 17 to June 29, dates inclusive.

This year's grade one classes will be dismissed on the 15 of June.

This program, known as the Beginners in June Program, has been in effect for a number of years and has been widely accepted by parents throughout the Division.

The objectives of the program are to develop, through close liaison between parents and teacher, an earlier section it provided to the town, I opposed this policy then, and I would oppose such a policy now. Finally, on the town solicitor's recommendation, policy #2 was replaced with the present policy (Policy #3). This policy is that the developer shall provide the town with a bond equal to 50 per cent of the total development cost.
